Notes for Olof Martinus Bergh:

Olof joined the Vereenigde Oostindische Compagnie (VOC) or Dutch East India Company in 1665. He served in Batavia and Ceylon before arriving at the Cape in 1676, serving under Governor van Goens.

Bergh was a prominent and wealthy member of the Cape community.

In 1686 Bergh was accused of plundering the wreck of the ship Nossa Senhora de los Milagros, a case surrounded by a great deal of mystery. A lieutenant and member of the Political Council at the time, he was imprisoned on Robbeneiland for six months (where 300 years later Nelson Mandela would also be incarcerated) and eventually he was banished to Ceylon. In 1695 he was pardoned for his crimes and restored to full glory in the Cape community as Captain of the Garrison, member of the Political Council and -- later -- the Council of Justice.

His properties included the farm De Kuilen (today Kuilsriver), a house on the Heeregracht in Cape Town, another house behind it, a house near the Grote Kerk, a house in Table Valley, the farm Constantia and two bungalows in Piquetberg

Ad Biewenga, De Kaap de Goede Hoop -- Een Nederlandse vestigingskolonie 1680 -1730, p. 225: Makes the following reference to Olof Bergh and Anna de Koning:

"Inderdaad zien we ouders zich met het huwelijk van hun kind bemoeien. In 1723 kantten Olof Bergh en zijn vrouw Anna de Koning zich tegen het voorgenomen huwelijk van hun zoon Simon Petrus. Omdat hij er niet van af te brengen was, verzochten zij de Politieke Raad of hij naar Indië verzonden mocht worden. Nadat de Raad inlichtingen had ingewonnen, werd Bergh junior als matroos aangesteld en verzonden". Resolusies VI.356 & 371

"TheJohanna1682(Joanna)"

The Johanna was the first English East Indiaman to be wrecked on the South African coastline. She was an English East Indiaman of 550 tons, commanded by Captain Robert Brown. She was on an outward bound voyage from the Downs, off south-east Kent, which she had left on the 27th February 1682 in the company of 4 other ships named the Williamson, Nathaniel, Welvaert and Samson, all bound for Bengal except the Johanna destined for Surat. They lost her about 35 or 40 miles to the east of the Cape, at about 4 o'clock in the morning of the 8th June, during good but dark weather, with a cloudy sky, by turning her ashore. The Johanna's principal cargo consisted of silver specie to the value of 72 000 pounds (70 chests of pieces-of-eight and silver bullion of the English factories in Bengal). Ten people drowned and 104 people reached Cape Town. Rumours of treasure on board the ship caused Simon van der Stel to send a salvage party, headed by Ensign Olaf Bergh, a Dutch East India Company official, to see what they could find. On arrival at the site, Bergh found four bodies washed up on shore, which they buried. Besides bottles of Brandy, casks of wine and beer, Bergh found 613 Spanish Reels, which had all washed up on shore. This stimulated Bergh's desire to get out to the wreck and he sent for a carpenter and a slave named Pay Mina, who was a trained pearl diver. Bergh returned to the Castle after a successful salvage of recovering coins to the value of 28, 302 gulden

Notes for Anna de Koningh:

Groot Constantia Oloff Bergh and Anna de Koningh (1716 1734)

Oloff Bergh, who took possession of Constantia on 13 November 1716, was born in Göteborg, Sweden, in 1643 and joined the VOC in 1665. He spent a few years in Ceylon as a soldier and was a sergeant when he arrived at the Cape in 1676. Here he married Anna de Koningh; they had 11 children. In 1681 he was promoted to ensign and he undertook a few unsuccessful voyages of exploration to Namaqualand in search of copper.

In 1682 the English ship Joanna ran aground near Gansbaai. Bergh had the task of salvaging its cargo, which he did successfully, but with small personal reward. In 1686 the Portuguese ship Nostra Senhora de los Milagros suffered a similar fate near Cape Agulhas. When Simon van der Stel, then Commander, sent a group under Bergh's command to salvage the load, they decided to look after their own interests, plundered the ship, sold the booty in Cape Town, and gambled and caroused on the proceeds. Van der Stel had the whole group arrested. Bergh acknowledged possession of some of the stolen articles, was sentenced, and imprisoned on Robben Island and later at the Castle. The Chamber of Seventeen eventually gave him the choice of going to Ceylon with his previous rank or remaining at the Cape as a Free Burgher. Bergh opted for Ceylon, but his wife chose to remain at the Cape.

In Ceylon he must have rendered good service as he was promoted to captain. He returned to the Cape in 1695 with that rank and was appointed as commander of the Cape garrison. He retired in about 1701 as a wealthy man, owning land on the Moolenweg, a farm in the Tijgerberg area, the farm De Kuijlen (Kuil's River) and the adjoining farm Saxenburg. With Johannes Phijffer he also owned the farm Vondeling near Paarl Diamant.

Anna de Koningh was born in Batavia, one of three children of the slave known as Angela of Bengal. The whole family was brought to the Cape by Pieter Kemp, a Free Burgher of Batavia, who sold them to Jan van Riebeeck (1619-1677). In 1662 Van Riebeeck sold the family to Abraham Gabbema, who when he was transferred to Batavia in 1666 set Angela and her three children free. It is not known what happened to her husband. In 1669 Angela married the Free Burgher Arnoldus Willemsz from Wesel, later known as Arnoldus Willemsz Basson; they had three children.

Thus it was that a former soldier who had spent a term in prison and his wife, Anna de Koningh, the child of Batavian slaves, became owners of Groot Constantia. Not much is known about the period of Bergh's ownership, but it is generally assumed that he did little about viticulture on the farm. This is supported by the fact that during this time the wines of Johannes Colijn of Klein Constantia (the present De Hoop op Constantia), began to draw attention overseas and became known as Constantia wine.

When Bergh died in 1724, his wife, who inherited the farm, also appears to have neglected viticulture. There were only 1 126 litres of red wine in the cellar when she died in 1734. The inventory of her estate, which includes Groot Constantia and provides the first known list of movable property on the farm, refers to a loft above the wine cellar used for storage but none of the goods kept there had anything to do with viticulture.

It is doubtful, in fact, whether she ever lived at the farm. It is not even mentioned in her will, suggesting that she intended it to be sold. The inventory gives the names of 27 slaves who worked at Groot Constantia, all of them described as "boys" most of them having come from the Indian Archipelago and Madagascar. One was from Anna's mother's birthplace, Bengal; another was a Zulu from Natal called Snaphaan.

4879. Angela van Bengale was born about 1640 in Ganges Delta, Bengal, India (Bangladesh). She died about 18 Jul 1720 in Kaapstad, Kaap Kolonie.

Notes for Angela van Bengale:

Throughout her long life Angela endured the suicide in 1671 of the Hottentot woman (Zara) in her sheep pen; the detention in 1687 of her son-in-law (Olof Bergh) on Robben Island & removal thereafter to Ceylon; the execution in 1688 of her son (Jan van As) for kidnapping, stock theft & murder; the sexual indiscretion in 1701 of her son (Jan Basson) with the Widow Putter resulting in a bastard grandson (Arnoldus Johannes Basson who was later banished in 1739 from the Cape for aiding & abetting Estienne Barbier) & the banishment in 1716 of her grandson (Jan van As) to Robben Island for his undisclosed (unmentionable?) behavior.

"Toe Van Riebeeck se kleindogter, Johanna Maria, die Kaap in 1710 besoek, skryf sy in □rbrief van □Ansiela□die vrou wat haar vader en sy broers en susters (d.w.s. die Van Riebeeck-kindere) opgepas het. Sy skryf verder dat Ansiela later met □rHollander getroud is en dat haar dogter die vrou van kaptein □B.□was. Dit is inderdaad so dat □Maai□Ansiela, ná haar vrystelling met Arnoldus Basson getroud is en die stammoeder van die Basson-familie in Suid-Afrika geword het. (Maai is blykbaar afgelei uit moei □tante[1e keer gedokumenteer 1201-1250] wat eintlik die vleinaam is vir moeder. WNT).

Terwyl Angela nog □rslavin was, is haar dogter, Anna de Koning, uit □rbuite-egtelike verhouding met □rEuropeër gebore. Anna was nie net mooi van aansien met fynbesnede gelaatstrekke nie, maar was ook geleterd en het met □rvaste hand dokumente onderteken. Sy was met kaptein Oloff Bergh getroud en het op haar beurt die stammoeder van die Bergh-familie in Suid-Afrika geword.

Soos soveel ander inwoners van Cabo gedoen het, het Angela waarskynlik ook vendusies bygewoon, hoewel sy self min aangeskaf het te oordeel aan die min kere wat haar naam in die vendurolle voorkom. Op 15 Maart 1719 koop sy as Maji Ansla □1zadel met 1 kruithoorn□vir 1 riksdalder op die vendusie van wyle die vermoënde Engela Breda (MOOC10/2.19). Haar naam verskyn weer in haar oorlede seun Michiel Basson se vendurol gedateer 21 November 1719, aangesien die goedere □tenhujse van Ansla van Bengalen zijn verkogt□. Al wat sy toe gekoop het, was □1mantje met poppe goet□teen 4:5 riksdalder □dalk om iets daarvan vir die kleinkinders te maak? (MOOC10/2.17)

Ansla van Bengalen se boedelinventaris is gedateer 18 Julie 1720 (MOOC8/4.15). Ek het probeer bepaal hoe oud sy ten tyde van haar dood kon wees. Veronderstel dat sy 15 was in 1655, dan was sy 80 in 1720, wat werklik □rhoë en soos ons sê □rgeseënde ouderdom vir daardie tyd was.

Die erfgename tot hierdie boedel behorende was die volgende:

□Annade Koning, huisvrouw van den edle capitijn Olof Bergh

Catarina van der Sanden getrouwe met Gijsbert la Febre

Arnoldus Maasdorp

Jan van As, Matthijs van As, Willem van As □kinderen van Jacobus van As

Arnoldus Basson, Matthijs Basson □kinderen van Willem Basson

Arnoldus Basson, Michiel Basson, Jan Basson □kinderen van Michiel Basson□

[Sowel Anna de Koning as Jacobus van As was voorkinders van Angela van Bengalen.]

Angela het volgens haar inventaris □n□thuijn□in die Tafelvallei besit. Die volgende vertrekke word in die dokument genoem: □rkamertjie aan die regterhand waar o.a. gelys word □1paar silvere gespen toebehorende Arnoldus Willems Basson□,haar oorlede man, □1schilderij van Willem Basson□,haar oorlede seun. Dan was daar nog □5hemden, 1 lakens, 7 kussen slopen by juff:r Bergh□(Anna de Koning). Die volgende vertrekke of plekke is ook gelys, naamlik die □combuis, voorhuys, solder, afdakje, thuijn huis□(met tuin- en ander gereedskap), □kelder□en □bottelary□. Volgens die inventaris het sy ook 5 slawe, 39 stuks bokke en □rbuiteplaas genaamd Hondswyk besit. Die slawe in Cabo was Jan Swart van Mallebaar, Louis van de Kust, Augustus van Bengalen, Martha met haar kind en Susanna met haar kind.

Op 23 Augustus word Ansla van Bengalen se besittings in die Tafelvallei verkoop. Die Bassons het niks gekoop nie, maar Oloff Bergh het wel □rpaar items gekoop, o.a. □1vrouw zadel□□1silver snuifdoos weegt 2 loot□,□1bett met een peuluw□,2 goue ringe elk met □rsteentjie, □1kist met cooper beslag□en □1jonge genaamt Jan Swart van Malle Baaren□.Die twee slavinne is ook verkoop: □1meijd met een kindt genaamt Marta□aan Hendrik Ewersdeijk (die name het hier □n bietjie verkeerd geloop), en □1meijd Sussanna met haer kind□aan m:r Richter. (MOOC10/2.13). By dieselfde vendusie is □eenmeijd genaamt Petronella van de Caab met haer kind□teen 141 riksdalder aan Tomas Verrijn verkoop vir die rekening van die erfgename van wyle Michiel Basson. (MOOC10/2.17 1/2)

Die vendurol van 14 September 1720 bevat die verkoopte goedere op Angela se plaas genaamd Hondswijk. Dit is ook heeltemal ander persone wat na die veiling gekom en goed gekoop het, omdat die plaas op die platteland geleë was. Vanne soos Viljoen, Roux, Marais, Lombart, De Plaisij, Zeenekal, Van Wijk, Meijboom, Roos, Prinslo, Pinar en De Venter kom voor □geen Basson of Bergh nie. Daar was slegs 3 slawe op die plaas, naamlik Pieter, Trompetter en Claas, al drie van Madagaskar wat deur onderskeidelik Hendrik Mholl, Wouter de Vos en Pieter Willemsse van Heerden gekoop is."
